

Assistant Professor of Environmental Science

Phone:78148-18524

Email-shilpa.thakur409@gmail.com

An alumna of Central University of Himachal Pradesh, Dharmshala, Shilpa Thakur completed her Masters in Environmental Science in 2014, where she had done her research work on air pollution and pollutants in Himachal Pradesh under the supervision of Dr. Ankit Tandon. An alumna of Central University of Punjab, Bathinda completed her M.Phil. in Environmental Science and Technology emerging environmentalist from Environmental science lab focusing on the Removal of heavy metal from the aqueous solution of water under the supervision of Dr. Sunil Mittal. She had done seven months training on Vermicomposting Technology & Apiculture under the aegis of Community Development Cell of Central University of Punjab, Bathinda. She had worked as Junior Research Fellow for 11 months and worked on Air Pollution, atmospheric pollutants and Climate Change in the G. B. Pant National Research Institute of Himalayan Environment and Sustainable Development Regional Centre Mohal, Kullu Himachal Pradesh under the guidance of Dr. J.C. Kuniyal Scientist -G. In her research work she had attended 2 International and 2 national conferences. She had published one book chapter and one research paper. She had also worked as guest faculty for 4 years in Himachal Pradesh Technical University and supervised 8 M.Sc students in their dissertation work.