Date: [26/09/2024] Venue: Room No 264, PTA BOLCK

School of Business Administration & NDLI Club at Government College, Hamirpur, organized a Book Review Competition for the students of the BBA program on 26/09/2024. The competition aimed to foster a reading culture among students and to sharpen their critical thinking and analytical skills.

Objective of the Event:

The primary objective of the competition was to encourage students to engage in extensive reading beyond their academic curriculum. Through this event, students were expected to develop the ability to critically analyze texts, present their reviews effectively, and enhance their communication skills.

Participation and Enthusiasm:

The competition saw enthusiastic participation from BBA.3rd and 5th semester. Each participant selected a book of their choice, ranging from fiction and non-fiction to business and self-help literature. The event attracted a significant number of participants, showcasing the wide-ranging interests and reading habits of the students.

Format of the Competition:

The competition was structured in a way that allowed students to present their book reviews within a set time frame. Each participant was allotted 7 minutes to provide a summary of the book, discuss its key themes, analyze the author's perspective, and express their personal opinions on the content. The judging criteria included the depth of analysis, clarity of presentation, originality of thought, and the participant's ability to engage the audience. Dr Sandesh was present during the program and 11 students gave their review.
